

Students in Grades 6 & 7 are required to do a minimum of 10 hours of community service throughout the school year. Students in Grade 8 are required to do 20 hours of community service throughout the school year. Community Service is considered to be something that you do for others in your community, church, or school that you do not receive any sort of payment for. Students completing 50 or more hours of service will receive special recognition at the end of the year.

Please complete this form for each time you volunteer and have it signed by the adult in charge of overseeing the event.
